

Programme: DESIGN 2.6
Design Sector	Duration:	1 Semester
Code: 5056	Hours/Week:	9 Practices
Credits: 6 Units	Total Hours:	126

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

- Formation of skilful architects in the spatial arrangement, that, consistent with their ideological position, be able to specialize the activities of man according to alternatives that the country offers and the type of society in which they will participate as professionals.
- The acquisition of the ability to compose, oriented towards the fidelity of translate into comfortable and habitable spaces, the need to shelter human activities and the attitude that allows them, to appreciate the proper relationship between the needs to satisfy and the effort to invest in their relation.

COURSE CONTENT DESCRIPTION:

Socio-cultural factors: The community as user

1. Architectural design
2. The man and the architectural space.
3. Space grouping and urban environment.
4. Environmental, technological and social basic determinants.
5. The building as an element of the ensemble.
6. Simple ensembles of buildings.
7. Relations with the context: Characteristics, spatial, functional and volumetric characteristics.
8. Analysis of architectural typologies and urban spaces.
9. Building design for educational use.
10. Building design for cultural use.